Pennsylvania, Through N. & W Control, Expects to Take Business From Him.

New York, February 26 .- Professionals sold stocks freely in Wall Street to-day, expecting a much worse bank statement than they actually got The known movements of money in-The known movements of money indicated heavy cash losses, but both the average and the actual statements when published officially showed only about a million shrinkage in that item. The surplus reserves were reduced somewhat, but the bank statement as a whole was of no importance.

Traders persisted in expecting a to-bacco case decision on Monday, and their expectations to this regard find no support in opinions from Washington. Neither lawyers nor insiders of the tobacco and oil trusts expect any decision on either of those cases until both have been fully considered, and

OPPOSE ROAD BILL IN HOUSE.

Altavista Cilizens Think Measure Shows

Unjust Favoritism.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Altavista, Va., February 25.—A local Good Roads Society was formed here this week with the following officers: Dr., W. J. Quick, president; T. J. Perruw, vice-president; Waiter Fauntieroy, secretary. Committeermen—Waiter Fauntieroy, Leo Arthur and W. B. Eliwood.

The vital reason for forming this society was not so much to better present roads, but in order to immediately register a protest against House bill No. 186, which residents here think shows favoritism to certain sections as regards roads in Campbell county. The bill would levy a tax on the entire county of 20 cents on $169, soliely for the benefit of two roads leading out of Lynch-hurs, one extending to Concord and the other to Rustburg, the county seat of Campbell, while the farmers and taxpayers on other paris of the county would not get any benefit from said taxation.

The bill also provides that the district road work be governed hereafter by one official instead of three, the present system. The resolution was passed in the form of a petition and more than 100 names were signed to it. It was then sent to the county's representative in the State Legislature.
